There have been many changes to this year's show. We have a new date, new venue, many extra unaffiliated classes as well as reduced entry fees.

This month I have received a few emails with results:

Danielle Gardham went to Area 8 with both her open 15hh WHP Bellevue Royal Prince and her novice Intermediate Climax Lampo. She had a very successful day on both her rides, with Prince she came 1st and Reserve Champion in the Open 15hh and they also gained their RI qualification as they won the RIHS qualifier too. Dan's other ride Rambo came 1st and Champion in the novice Intermediate. What a show Dan, congratulations.

Jennie Howells and her Intermediate WH Utah also went to Area 8 where they also had a very successful day coming 2nd in the Novice Intermediate WH and 1st and Champion in the open. Congratulations Jennie.

Gemma James has been having a relatively quiet start to the season, just taking youngsters out to smaller shows. However, she did qualify her large Intermediate Westcoe Gigalo at Area 8 and was also champion open, in his first season. Well done Gem.

My final email was from the Curry family. Clare Curry and Noble Star came 1st in the Large SHP Pretty Polly at Area 8. Sophie Curry and Parkhill Cananta, owned by Mr and Mrs Coulstock qualified RIHS 13hh SHP at Addington. Well done both of you.

Please send me your results before the 14th June.

Best of luck

Kirsty xxx
